STATINTL

Mr. [redacted]
Office of the Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C.

Dear John:

25X1

We greatly appreciate your willingness to arrange for the typing of the highly sensitive annexes to the "all source" historical survey done by J. J. Hitchcock. Enclosed for [redacted] are annexes A-O. I hope they can be typed and reproduced in 20 copies in time for next Monday morning's Commission meeting. In order to facilitate assembling the report, it would be helpful if lettered tabs could be placed between each annex.

The last two annexes (Annex P--President Nixon's Directive of November 1971; and Annex Q--President Ford's letter of October 1974) will appear in original form. Accordingly, these do not have to be summarized, but we do need tabs for them. I am enclosing 20 copies of these two final annexes to permit total assembly of all sensitive annexes by your typist.

STATINTL

Any procedural questions which the typist may have may be referred to me. Any substantive questions should probably be directed to J. J. Hitchcock [redacted]

STATINTL

Kind personal regards.

Sincerely,

[redacted]

STATINTL

Kent B. Crane

Kent Crane called - he has run into a problem getting JJ Hitchcocks paper typed. His girl is busy and no other gal there has codeword clearance - SO, he would like to know if we could provide a typist and pickup the paper from his office - (he will not be in tomorrow) - from his secy, Kathy Donnel.

STATINTL I talked to [redacted] and she said you should determine whether we provide a secy or not but it appears to her that it is a Commission problem.
